The Commission made the following interim determinations in this docket.

1. The procedural requirements of Wis. Stat. § 196.026(3)-(6) have been satisfied.

2. Each party to this docket has been given a reasonable opportunity to present evidence and arguments in opposition to the settlement as required by Wis. Stat. § 196.026(7)(a).
3. The public interest has been adequately represented by the parties who entered into the Settlement Agreement as required by Wis. Stat. § 196.026(7)(b).
4. The Settlement Agreement represents a fair and reasonable resolution of the revenue requirement, is supported by substantial evidence on the record as a whole, and complies with applicable law, including that the rates resulting from the Settlement Agreement are just and reasonable, as required by Wis. Stat. § 196.026(7)(c).
5. The Commission approved the Settlement Agreement in whole, without conditions, and the Commission will decide the remaining issues in accordance with applicable law and procedure.

The Commission directed the Division of Energy Regulation draft an Interim Order consistent with its discussion, with a Final Decision to be issued after review of WP&L's 2019 Fuel Cost Plan proceedings.
